

I am sending this in support of the EPA's proposed NH MS4 general permit currently being proposed. I live on a small lake that has seen a significant increase in cyanobacteria over the last few years with the cause being primarily the addition of nutrients from fertilizer and storm water run off. Any action that can reduce this pollutant will be greatly appreciated.

Mark Wolfe